To the members Delta Sigma Phi Fraternity:

As an addendum to the October 19, 2018 letter which outlined several modifications to Delta Sigma Phi fraternity's interim suspension status, I want to make clear that at this time Delta Sigma Phi fraternity remains on interim suspension and is only permitted to participate in the following alcohol free activities:

- Intramural competitions
- Philanthropic and service projects
- Conferences
- Campus fundraisers
- Regularly scheduled business meetings

Delta Sigma Phi fraternity is not permitted to host, participate or be involved with any of the following:

- Socials, mixers
- Recruitment
- Receptions
- Tailgating
- New membership education/meetings
- Any event that involves/includes alcohol

All other activities not listed in this letter are also prohibited under the terms of the organizational interim suspension without express permission, in advance from the Director, Office of Student Conduct. Failure to comply with the modified interim suspension, will result in a full reinstatement of the interim suspension status as outlined in the July 13, 2018 letter.

Sincerely,

Michael S. Gilmer
Director, Office of Student Conduct
